

DENOUNCING CORRUPTION AND EXPOSING PERSONS WHO CONSPIRED TO COMMIT MURDER

- Introduction -

After 33 years, and after someone's recent publishing of a book called Killing For Krishna, a humble devotee has decided to come out the closet and share what he knows first hand about the murder of Sulochan and "the four" who plotted against him.

After watching the shocking video of his live testimony contained in this newsletter, he collaborates many facts in that book, but also adds to the story. He was the telephone dept. manager in New Vrindavan, and had access to calls and live events leading up to the kill. After the murder, he was sent on traveling sankirtan so that the Feds did not have access to his information.

Dedicated to any and all devotees whose lives may have been adversely affected by crime and its carriers.

ARTHUR VILLA, AKA KULADRI DASA....

is now called the LEGAL ENFORCER for the ISKCON North American GBC. Just how much legal experience does he have? In the FBI murder investigations, racketeering, etc. charges of New Vrindavan, was he actually implicated?

Everyone in ISKCON should be familiar with Kuladri dasa. He was Kirtanananda Swami's "right hand man" in New Vrindavan, and the temple president.

The chilling news that a certain member(s) of the New Vrindavan community was implicated in the murder of a disgruntled ex-community member, (SULOCHAN dasa), was proven in court, and the man who pulled the trigger to commit murder is still behind bars today.

But just how was the plan of the murder coordinated? Were there other New Vrindavan leaders involved in the murder conspiracy? Why was Kuladri dasa the first one to turn State's Evidence in exchange for IMMUNITY in any or all charges brought by the FBI and US Attorney?

Startling NEW EVIDENCE has surfaced in the form of a video and testimony given by a devotee who was the telephone department manager, DISCLOSING the inside communications of leaders of the New Vrindavan community, some who are now "big" leaders in the ISKCON institution today, and their conspiracy to commit murder.

According to this new source, it Kuladri dasa was one of the main ring leaders in the planning of the execution of a devotee - Sulochan.

Kuladri - Legal Enforcer? Or legal escapee? You decide. If true, do leaders of the Krishna consciousness Movement, want someone who may have had his hands bloodied in a murder, in the ISKCON management hierarchy? Doubtful.

LIARS CANNOT BE LEADERS

Kuladri has been lying to ISKCON authorities for decades, about the truth of his involvement in the murder. - Jyotirdhama dasa

The Video....allegedly getting away with murder....until now:

<http://krishna1008.blogspot.com/2019/03/my-involvement-in-sulochan-murder.html>

NOTE: We have heard of other stories about Kuladri's shady management dealings - such as in Phoenix Arizona. Senior devotees outside the temple management requested the GBC, and were promised, a full and impartial investigation into complaints. But so far lies and another coverup continues.

Getting away with murder, and the implications of dishonesty in ISKCON leadership

No one asks the FBI or some other law enforcement agency for immunity, or to cut a plea bargain, unless the person requesting it is to some extent guilty of a crime himself. That is a given.

So the fact that Kuladri dasa requests the FBI for “immunity” if he gives them the goods on Kirtanananda and others involved in the murder of Sulochan, reveals that he too was part of some crimes in which he could face prison time.

This newsletter and the live video expose by Jyotirdhama, points to a very serious corruption within the ecclesiastical hierarchy of ISKCON. It also points to murderous cover-ups, in which those guilty of crimes go unpunished, and are even allowed to occupy some of the highest spiritual and managerial posts within ISKCON.

This may be all well and fine for the few who some 33 years ago, decided to take the law into their own hands to “protect” their spiritual leader Kirtanananda.

However - murdering someone in cold blood, whether committing the murder directly, or planning and abetting the crime, is against the law and would never be sanctioned by the Founder-Acarya of ISKCON, Srila Prabhupada.

So now what? What should be done? Should the GBC try to sweep this crime under the rug and protect those who were in cahoots, by attacking the credibility of the whistle-blowers? Or should they preserve the real purity of ISKCON by removing such persons, be they even guru, from leadership roles within this spiritual Society? The answer is obvious.

There is no question, that the purity must be preserved, if ISKCON is to survive. Because too many devotees now, are enlightened as to what happened here, they expect correction, justice, and protection from future acts of violence against other members. More than anything, they expect accountability.

TRUTH AND KARMA

What is more important, to give the “impression” of purity, or truth and honesty of mistakes

"Satyam, truthfulness.... means that facts should be presented as they are, for the benefit of others. Facts should not be misrepresented. According to social conventions, it is said that one can speak the truth only when it is palatable to others. But that is not truthfulness. The truth should be spoken in a straightforward way, so that others will understand actually what the facts are. If a man is a thief and if people are warned that he is a thief, that is truth. Although sometimes the truth is unpalatable, one should not refrain from speaking it. Truthfulness demands that the facts be presented as they are for the benefit of others. That is the definition of truth." (Bhagavad-gita 10.4-5 purport)

Honesty

If a brahmana is not truthful, all his claims as a brahmana at once become null and void. (SB 1.17.41 purport)

There is nothing more sinful than untruthfulness. Because of this mother earth once said, "I can bear any heavy thing except a person who is a liar." (SB 8.20.4)

One who speaks dharma must know the truth. The knower of truth is one who sees through all deception. - Manu Smriti

“One must speak the truth always, even to an enemy.”

- Srila Prabhupada

SILENCE THE WITNESS?

Bhaktipada sent me out on the “pick” (fund raising) shortly after Sulochan was murdered. This came as a complete surprise to me. I didn’t know exactly why Bhaktipada wanted to send “Krishna’s telephone man” out on the road (I wasn’t an exceptional “picker”) but I gladly complied. I was happy to get away from the madness that had overtaken New Vrindaban by then, and I never asked, “Why?” I just said, “Okay.”

WHAT IF someone in a administration position in ISKCON, is found decades after the fact, to have engaged in activities of a CRIMINAL NATURE.

Should that person be held accountable, or should the amount of years during which time the "facts of the offense were unknown" (or known), wash away our concern?

The answer should be obvious.

CORROBORATING EVIDENCE

On JUNE 15, 2010....

- BY DHARMATMA DASA

Radhanath Swami came to my house in Alachua to persuade me to change my testimony, in which I had stated that it was Radhanath Swami (along with Kirtanananda) who came to my office in New Vrindavan, a few days after the murder of Sulochan, and asked for $5,000 to fly the murderer Tirtha out of the country.

Radhanath wanted me to change the story to one that he actually came requesting money to bail Tapapunja out of jail. But upon later checking the police reports of the arrests of Tapapunja and Tirtha, I realized that Tapapunja had not been arrested for many days "after" Radhanath had come by my office.

Although I told him that I was sure I had the facts right, He pleaded and pleaded for me to just sign a legal statement saying that "perhaps" I was mistaken on the dates. After Radhanath begged me for an hour and a half, I finally agreed.

A few days later, his lawyer Fedorowski, had sent a legal paper for me to sign, stating that I was mistaken on the dates.

On November 17, 2016 I wrote to Radhanath and told him to rescind that document and never use it. The document wasn't true, and Radhanath wanted me to perjure myself.

Complicit
 [kuh m-plis-it]
 adj. 1: choosing to be involved in an illegal or questionable act, especially with others.

DEVOTEE: I am not trying to point fingers, but if there were some leaders orchestrating the whole murder saga of Sulochan (I mean how could one man, Tirtha, be the sole actor), and the fact is being covered up by the conspirators and maybe even the GBC, to me each time those who organized the crime lie about it, they are pulling the trigger again, and again, and again.

We are not a Society of murders. We are devotees. The truth about the organizers of the murder is coming out now. There is even a book out - "Killing For Krishna." How can anyone who took part in this murder, continue to try and fool devotees and the public any longer? It is simply shameful.

- Dasanudasa

DEVOTEE

Years ago, I was at a program lead by Radhanath Swami. At the end of his lecture, someone from the audience raised their hand and asked about his accused involvement in the murder of Sulochan. At the time, I was not satisfied with his answer, and thought that he was possibly "skirting" the question. He replied: "The FBI is the most thorough investigative organization in the world, and they found nothing to charge me with."

He did not really answer, yes or no, but deferred to another agency and their opinion.

- RR DASI

When it come downs to it, lets say the overwhelming corroborating evidence (with eye witnesses) points to Radhanath Swami, Kuladri, and a few others, engaged in a plot that was carried out to murder a devotee; someone whom they decided did not have a right to live anymore; and thus it was time for that person to "change their body" (in their own language) or be killed.

So what upset did this all cause?

- 1) Srila Prabhupada's name was implicated in murder carried out by his "devotees."
- 2) It set a precedent that it is OK to murder or take away the life of another devotee or individual, if you deem it necessary or just.
- 3) Did you not take away the life of someone's father, son, friend, or relative. So far, no apologies have been made to those impacted by this selfish criminal act.
- 4) You sent another man (Tirtha, the killer) to spend the rest of his life in prison, by allegedly doing your dirty work.
- 5) Because enough evidence may now be there to warrant another trail under the RICO Act, and because the person who made this testimonial video swears that Radhanath Swami is blatantly lying about his active involvement in the murder or Sulochan: Radhanath Swami, Kuladri, and others may owe a sincere apology to thousands of devotees for allegedly lying to protect their name and fame and position. (It could at least end up in the court of Yamaraj).

"This is very serious. Is ISKCON becoming a Society run by GANGSTERS? Has Kali himself infiltrated ISKCON?"
